

The Truth Amplified:
12 Jesus: Lord of All
Luke 24:13-35 (Mark 9:2-8)
March 31

17 And he said to them, “What is this conversation that you are holding with each other as you walk?” And they stood still, looking sad. 18 Then one of them, named Cleopas, answered him, “Are you the only visitor to Jerusalem who does not know the things that have happened there in these days?” 19 And he said to them, “What things?” And they said to him, “Concerning Jesus of Nazareth, a man who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people, 20 and how our chief priests and rulers delivered him up to be condemned to death, and crucified him. 21 But we had hoped that he was the one to redeem Israel. Yes, and besides all this, it is now the third day since these things happened. – Luke 24:14-21

Seeing Doesn’t Mean Believing

1. In what ways does the encounter on the road to Emmaus challenge our reliance on physical evidence for spiritual truths?
2. Reflecting on Ephesians 6:12 and 2 Corinthians 5:7, how does the truth of the unseen spiritual world influence our daily lives?
3. How do Luke 24:13-27, Ephesians 6:12, and 2 Corinthians 5:7 highlight the relationship between faith and empirical evidence in understanding spiritual matters?

Facts Without Faith

4. What parallels can you draw between the disciples on the road to Emmaus and people's struggles with faith in contemporary society?
5. Discuss the significance of Jesus chastising the disciples for their lack of belief despite having witnessed significant events firsthand. Use Luke 24:22-27
6. How does the episode on the road to Emmaus illustrate the importance of faith in recognizing Jesus? Use 1 Corinthians 2:14 in this discussion.
7. Discuss the significance of the facts presented in Romans 10:9-13.

Invite the Truth into Your Life

8. In what ways does the transfiguration account in Mark 9:2-10 and the Christ hymn of Philippians 2:6-11 alter how we recognize Jesus after his resurrection?
9. Reflect on the transformation the disciples undergo from confusion to recognition upon hearing the scriptures and then inviting Jesus to stay with them. What does this signify for believers?
